

Celebrations... (Part 1)

Some devotional thoughts on the theme of celebrations....

We don't just have to wait until momentous occasions to celebrate.

Nehemiah 12:27-47

v.27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from where they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps and lyres. (NIV Bible)

To stop and celebrate is an important part of any process. I'm not just saying this because I love good food and great people spending time together! I do think that it's great to look back over past successes and celebrate them. The Israelites had come a long way since being exiles in Babylon. Here they are, their wall rebuilt, their faith reconfirmed and the new season of their people was well on it's way. To stop and take some time in dedication and celebration was an important step in ushering in the new stage of life.

From the Editor

This month is a time to celebrate!

Celebrations come in all shapes and sizes.

Have you celebrated something lately?

In my family, we like to celebrate with a party or a meal together. Cake is often a given, and other delicious foods, only eaten on these special occasions. Each family celebrates differently, and I'm sure you have many fond memories of times of celebration in your life.

There are also many reasons to celebrate. We celebrate our past, through upcoming anniversaries commemorations. We celebrate births, birthdays and life! We also celebrate our future and new developments about to begin. In this edition of the @Glynde there is a lot to celebrate amongst our community.

We also focus on the celebrations of culture and diversity and celebrate travel experiences of many members in recent months

It's important that we remember thank God for the blessings in our life that are cause for celebration. Without Him we have nothing! Our lives are designed and purposed to give glory back to Him. As a Glynde community, we are preparing to celebrate 90 years. I wonder how many blessings there are to count over that time? Perhaps far too many to number. Although 90 years is a long time, God has been at work far longer, and pouring blessings out on His people all that time. And will continue to do so into eternity.

I hope you find something to thank God for through reading the stories, and reflections in this edition. May He also bless you in a special way this month!

Happy reading,

Sometimes we can be so driven in pushing forward that we forget to stop and celebrate what has been. As people get older they even become hesitant to celebrate birthdays and don't acknowledge the previous year of their life – although I think this may be a reluctance to embrace being one year older! But we don't just have to wait until momentous occasions to celebrate. Every time something significant happens we can take some time to celebrate. To be honest, every day holds a moment worth celebrating. Often before I go to sleep I will go through my day in my head and just thank God for moments that may have seemed insignificant to someone else but has brought a moment of celebration for me. Let's not leave celebration out of our lives. Let's be thankful for each and every day.

Prayer: Lord, you are a God of praise and thanksgiving and we want to give you all the praise you deserve. Thank you for giving us this day. May we celebrate the life you have given to us. Amen.

What is something you can celebrate in your life at the moment?

*Hi! It's great being part of a church family like ours here at Glynde, a place where we can upbuild and encourage one another in our faith, and a place from which we can reach out the many people around us who don't know the peace and joy of being loved by God and forgiven by God, through Jesus.

God wants us to love and to care for one another in our church family here at Glynde. Paul in one of his letters writes: "Rejoice with those who are rejoicing..." (Rom. 12:15).

*This last month, we have had much to celebrate. Margaret Hassold celebrated her 80th birthday. Congratulations, Margaret! We thank God for your life and your faith, and we pray that God will continue to bless you and to use you in all sorts of ways in these coming years 😊

Also, God blessed John and Viv Kupke with a baby girl, Johanna Coral Kupke. What a wonderful gift! May God bless you as a family as you love and care for one another, and you grow together in your faith and your love. 😊

*This month too is a time of celebration, as we celebrate the 90th birthday of our church here at Glynde. I've been reading the history of "Zion Lutheran Church, Glynde", a history that was produced for the 50th Anniversary of our church in 1975. What struck me was how God has blessed our community over the years, as pastors and people have loved and cared for one another and reached out into the community with the good news of God's love, and His forgiveness through Jesus.

*The theme of this AT GLYNDE is "celebration". We have much to celebrate and rejoice over. You and I are God's forgiven children through our union with Jesus by our baptism and our faith. We have God's Spirit living in us, and He empowers us to love and care for one another, and to reach out with God's life transforming news. Our whole lives are totally changed from what they would be without God's forgiveness and

His presence in our lives. And we have a wonderful future to look forward as we live out lives in our loving Father's care, and we head towards the welcoming arms of Jesus.

*Sure life will have its tough times.... But we have much to celebrate and rejoice over. Remember that old song based on the words of Paul to the Christians in Philippi:

*Rejoice in the Lord, always,
And again I say rejoice.
Rejoice, rejoice,
And again I say rejoice.
Rejoice in the Lord, always,
And again I say rejoice... (Phil. 4:4).*

May your union with Lord Jesus and your status as God's dear forgiven child continue to give you joy, amidst the up's and down's of life!!

Pastor Wayne

Prayer Ideas

The patterns of prayer and celebration in the home add to the richness of children's experience of faith – here are some ways you can deepen the lived practices of a faithful life at home.

Squeezy Prayers

One way to pray is to use "squeezy prayers" Everyone holds hands in a circle. An adult will begin the prayer. When they have finished they squeeze the persons hand next to them to show it is their turn. They may pray out loud, or silently, or may squeeze on to the next person. When the squeeze has reached the starting person they may say another closing prayer or just say Amen.

Here are suggestions for ways of using the squeezy prayer:

Using a squeezy prayer ask God for something that is needed in the world...like peace, or understanding or for help in a particular problem in the world.

Using a squeezy prayer say thank you for a good friend or friends. Say them by name and even say something you like about them.

Using a squeezy prayer say thank you for something that you are good at. A gift God has given you.

Pray a Colour

Giving thanks to God is one of the most basic and important forms of prayer. It reminds us that all we have is a gift from God. Choose a colour and invite your family to give thanks to God for everything they can think of that is that colour. Take turns around the table until you can think of nothing else.

From the Chairperson

Celebrate God's generosity!

Instead of bronze I will bring you gold, and silver in place of iron. Instead of wood I will bring you bronze, and iron in place of stone. Isaiah 60:17a

God's generosity is full of surprises, exceeds our expectations and gives us much to celebrate in our community of faith at Glynde. Two big examples of this come to mind.

Firstly, the big news for this month comes from our special congregational meeting held on July 19th and the decision of the congregation to approve the financial plan to borrow up to $500,000 to enable the church redevelopment master plan to proceed. Thank you to everyone who came on a cold July Sunday at the end of the school holidays to help make this important decision. I must admit it seems a bit daunting at times, but as the information prepared by the redevelopment working group shows, if we all work together it is achievable and will be a blessing to us all for many, many years. We now need to roll up our sleeves and honour the commitments we have made and support the different fundraising ventures that will be planned to pay for the project. Next steps include working out the project management plan with the architect, selecting a builder etc. If you are wondering how you can contribute, then please look for the information in the narthex or speak to Ben Pfitzner, our Treasurer, or me.

Secondly, the celebration of the 90th Anniversary of our congregation is only a few weeks away and Sunday, 23 August at 10:30 am we will join in a worship service of thanksgiving for God's constant love and presence among us. Worship will be followed by a shared lunch and a program that recalls the highlights of ministry and christian service at Glynde. It will be a day to reflect and remember, to rejoice and to look to the future of how we continue to build a place where people meet Jesus and experience his love for us all. Please come, invite your friends and anyone who may have an interest in our ministries. This event can certainly be a chance to show we are looking to be the friendliest church in Adelaide!

Getting ready for this event does involve some additional preparations:

- ♦ if you have photos or other memorabilia, please see Lyall Kupke so they can be included in displays
- ♦ if you can come to the working bee on Saturday, 8 August, you will find that there are plenty of useful things you can do to give the facilities a spring clean and some extra attention before our anniversary.

The Bible verse above is about God's generosity to us - let us take the time to do the same for others. Our cross cultural ministry continues to grow and develop with Tamara starting and afternoon group for families in addition to her other outreach activities. Our thanks go to those who generously give time to run outreach and fundraising activities - the markets, the football carpark, family activities - we can generate a very long list. While we are also so busy, let us take time to pray for each other.

Multicultural Service

Stephen tells about the Sudanese ministry

Korean singers share a worship song

On Sunday July 5 we celebrated cultural diversity of our community. It was the second Multicultural service at Glynde. Our two main language groups shared about their respective ministries and their musical talents.

Ben and Buyoung, from the Korean congregation, shared about Pastor You's theme through his preaching for the year of 2015. They have been focussing on Zechariah and mentioned how God had particularly spoken to them through the words "Not by my strength, but only by the Spirit of God".

Stephen spoke on behalf of the Sudanese congregation. He opened with the phrases: "God has no colour, God has no language" to show that we all worship and no the same God, despite our physical differences.

We also heard from Tamara about her ministry with families so far. Especially at East Torrens primary school. She shared about how exciting and rewarding spending time with children and families has been.

After the service, everyone shared in a language that transcends all barriers—food! A delicious display of all of our cultural origins, from vegemite sandwiches to Korean noodles, German cake and Sudanese curries.

The children were invited to make friendship bracelets during the service, Tamara is pictured here showing children a technique. The whole day was a great celebration of culture and unity through our faith in God.

Something to Celebrate...

Introducing Johanna Coral Kupke arrived on Sunday 19 July. Born at Burnside hospital, she weighed 2.92kg and measured 47cm.

Parents, Viv and John, are enjoying their new edition to the family!

classroom volunteer to work with individual children. Lisa said that the simple act of listening to the children read, with patience and kindness, has a big impact on their wellbeing and their learning.

The children in this class are all 5,6 and 7 years old and have just arrived in Australia, many are facing big changes and challenges as everything is new and different for them; the weather, the language, the environment, the school system, the people etc. Many children are struggling to make sense of it all and some have lived through very difficult circumstances.

It is heart-warming to sit with the individual children for 5-10 minutes and see them slowly relax and enjoy the moment, as their serious face fade away; smiles appear and eyes lights up! Just giving your attention to a child, in a warm and friendly manner, asking their names, listening to them and giving them positive feedback can help them feel more secure and confident in themselves and in their learning.

Every child is precious and giving them quality time helps them feel recognised as a unique part of God's creation.

"Dear God, we ask for the grace to be our best selves, we ask for the vision to be builders of the human community rather than its destroyers. We ask for humility to understand the fears and hopes of other people. This we ask through Jesus.

Amen" From Prayer for World Peace – Sister Joan Chittister

I would like to show my respect and acknowledge the traditional custodians of this land, of elders past and present, on which Glynde church and our activities take place.

As the days are getting longer and giving us more light, I notice my children are keen to catch the moments of sunshine and clear skies to be outside in nature. After church last Sunday, my children and their cousins spent the afternoon exploring nature, releasing energy and celebrating the time together. What a gift it is to celebrate God's beautiful world and be fully present in it. It comes so naturally to children.

This week at East Torrens primary school I was reminded by the school chaplain, Lisa Hughes, how small acts of kindness can have a big impact on children.

Lisa told me that she is very grateful to Glynde Lutheran Church for supporting children in the IELC (intensive English language classes) by providing a

So many travellers have had recent experiences across the globe. So we thought it time to share some stories of their travels. First up, the Kramers....

We headed over to Copenhagen and Stockholm for a couple weeks in June- part for a holiday and part for work. Eli was lucky enough on the flight from Adelaide to Copenhagen to get an invite into the cockpit and even got to wear the Captains hat! We spent 7 days sightseeing in Copenhagen, visiting the Tivoli gardens, the little mermaid statue, exploring the canals by boat, visiting the Royal Palaces and eating a lot of delicious food at Nyhavn and the many “street food markets” around Copenhagen. From Copenhagen we went to Stockholm for 7 days, where I presented at the International Society for Stem Cell Research annual meeting- which had 4000 attendees including a couple Nobel laureates! We had a few days together outside of work to see the beautiful old town of Stockholm, walk the cobbled streets, visit many museums and castles and luckily for us Eli loves statues- a good thing when you’re visiting anywhere in Europe! Eli won 2kg of chocolate (in the photo) at the Tivoli gardens in Stockholm, we ate a number of serves of Swedish meatballs and by the last few days, we even experienced some European summer warmth!

Have you ever visited the LUTHER GARTEN?

If you have you will also have noted a very healthy lush-green Feld-Acorn tree, several metres tall, with a plaque inscribed "Lutherische Kirche Australiens, Pastor Stephen J. Pietsch". It is tree Number 21 of almost 500 planted in 2009 in the LUTHER GARTEN, Lutherstadt-Wittenberg, Germany.

LUTHER GARTEN is an international ecumenical project of the Lutheran World Federation, Geneva, a living expression of the recognition and celebration of a REFORMATION which began almost 500 years ago. After an almost 3 weeks' stay in Lutherstadt-Wittenberg I have a renewed appreciation for my Christian heritage, in awe of the courage of conviction of Martin Luther (1483 -

Anyone who strolls along the streets of Lutherstadt-Wittenberg today cannot miss the evidence of a REFORMATION, of Martin Luther's life in this town.

The tower of the Schlosskirche inscribed boldly "Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott" is a landmark which can be clearly seen in the distance well before entering the town.

The Schlosskirche is presently closed for extensive cleaning, restoration and extension, in readiness for the 2017 celebrations when people from all denominations across the world will arrive for worship, discussions, music performances, art displays etc.

The Stadtkirche (Town Church), Martin Luther's main preaching place where it is recorded he performed more than a thousand baptisms, is just across the Market Place from the Schlosskirche. This church has been my place of worship for these past weeks, and a

We are in sad Sarajevo where there is still much damage to buildings as the result of war, and what appears to be a very fractured country and yet this whole peninsula that we have seen so far is rich in beauty. We travelled from beautiful Dubrovnik along what must be one of the most beautiful coastlines I have ever seen, before turning inland and going to Mostar and travelling along a most beautiful teal coloured river - just brilliant. (Must be port supporters!) Mostar has the historic 1600s bridge that was totally destroyed during the 90s war and has been rebuilt stone by stone.

We loved Dubrovnik with its old city walls and tried to do a good mountain goat impersonation walking around the almost 2 km up and down circumference of the old city, but what views. Mind you the 75 year old muscles do not work the same as 25 year old ones, and I was very thankful

We head for Vienna soon, which is last destination on the Europe leg of the trip. It went so quickly. We saw amazing Postojna Caves, which just went for literally kilometres and was a chilly 10 degrees, then on to a castle in a cave. Love to all!

Glynde is turning 90!!

From time to time it is good to take stock and see how we are going. Anniversaries give us the opportunity to look back and review our situation today. We want to use our 90th anniversary this month to do just that, as well as celebrating the present and looking forward to the future.

So here's a summary of the story so far. It was exactly 90 years ago when our church was dedicated on 23rd August 1925. It was the first suburban Lutheran church in Adelaide. The Hectorville congregation (as it was known then) had been formed in November the year before under the leadership of Pastor G Kuechle, an American pastor who had been serving in Adelaide.

However, even earlier in September 1924 a Sunday School was conducted for this district in the home of Mr and Mrs Oscar Schmerl. The first teachers were Mr and Mrs Cecil Clark and they continued to render faithful service for the next 27 years.

In March 1930 Pastor Albert Zweck was installed and he served the congregation faithfully for the next 33 years. He also devoted much of his ministry to chaplaincy in metropolitan hospitals, homes for the aged and especially the mental hospital.

As the years went by the suburb became more populated and membership increased. In 1930 there were 90 baptised members; in 1935, grew to 200; in 1959, 310 baptised members; and in 1974, 580 baptised members.

As the city population grew and expanded towards the hills the congregation decided to establish a new congregation at Tea Tree Gully in 1962. For a while we joined with other congregations to form a parish: with Tea Tree Gully (1964-1967) and Magill (1967-1977).

With the changes to suburban boundaries in 1967 Hectorville congregation became Glynde congregation.

With growth in numbers came growth in buildings. The original church is now part of our hall. It was extended in 1959, but in 1972 the present church was built in the modern design of architect Eric von Schramek. In 1988 the upstairs extension was constructed.

Sunday School numbers grew and many unchurched children were reached with the Gospel message. In 1959 over 100 children attended; in 1974 there were 150. For many years there were even branch Sunday Schools at Tranmere and the Hectorville Primary School. Many people served as teachers.

Redevelopment update...

The Ladies' Guild was formed in 1926 and still continues under the name 'Women's Fellowship'. The ladies have worked tirelessly at many welfare projects. Catering has been a big activity over the years and the ladies have given much time and energy to this. The second-hand shop and support for the Lutheran Emergency Family Shelter have been wonderful demonstrations of their love for people in need.

Bible study has been an important feature of congregation life and has included Crossways, Alpha and Bethel Bible series.

Working together for a common purpose has been a noted feature over the years. Catering for weddings, birthdays etc, and the delivery of telephone books have demonstrated this as men, women and children worked side by side. Not to mention the voluntary labour put into various building projects.

God has richly blessed our congregation at Glynde as it tackled many challenges in the past. What will be our response to today's challenges?

Lyall Kupke

A lot has been happening recently in our journey of Redevelopment of the Glynde Church Facilities! After agreeing at the Half-Yearly Meeting to proceed with the building project, we've had a fantastic response—42 Commitment Forms were received! These indicated what upfront and ongoing gifts people were committing to. The commitments totalled $311,850 upfront and $42,090 annually. What an amazing blessing that we thank God for! As a result of those commitments, a Special Congregational Meeting on Sunday 19th July was held, where it was agreed to apply for a loan(s) from LLL of up to $500,000 to undertake the construction of Priorities 1 and 2 of the church redevelopment plan.

In addition to the committed upfront gifts and up to $200,000 from the Manse Fund (previously agreed at the Half-Yearly Meeting), the LLL loan means that we are fully financed for $1,000,000 of construction works. This is expected to be sufficient for Priorities 1 and 2 of the church redevelopment.

Since the Special Congregational Meeting, the Redevelopment Working Group has now met with the architects (Phillips/Pilkington Architects) to work out our next steps in the plan. The Executive and Working Group are also planning to meet with a building company (Marshall & Brougham) on Tues 4th August. They will present a proposal of how to manage the project and the costing/tendering processes.

So it's all happening! It's very exciting, and we'll keep the congregation updated as further developments occur! At this stage, the congregation can assist by praying for the Executive and Working Group as they work through the details of the building project. They can also begin to donate to the Building Fund Account. Upfront Gifts, Ongoing Gifts and "Big Things from Small Change" are all ways you can help!! (See Treasurer Ben Pfitzner for more info or help on donating.)

Indoor Bowls

Indoor bowls is going again. Over the last few months a small group of bowlers have had a go at mastering the bias in the sport of bowls. With the help of the veteran bowlers, Diane Kleinig and Doris Kupke, we have tackled the tricky bowls and managed to keep most of them on the mat. As the games have progressed, tactics have varied from gentle nudges to solid knocks. The friendly competition has meant an enjoyable time for all.

The next games will be played on Saturday afternoons 15th August and 29th August, starting at 2pm. Come and join the fun.

Beginners also welcome.
