IN WORSHIP TODAY

Our Bible Readings for our Church@Home are as follow:

For the 9am worship service, they are Genesis 1:1 – 2:4a (in the Beginner's Bible: Genesis 1 ("The Beginning" on pages 7 – 13) and 2 Corinthians 13:11 – 13.

The Gospel reading is Matthew 28:16 – 20.

For the 10.30am worship service, the bible reading is Matthew 28:16 – 20.

The theme and message for both worship services is "Everything you always wanted to know about the Holy Spirit ..." which is based on Matthew 28:16—20.

Today is Trinity Sunday, a day on which we focus on the fact that God is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In most other years, on Trinity Sunday, I've gone to great trouble to outline why we confess that God is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit....

I've explained at length how the only way that the early Christian could make sense of their experience of God as our dear Father in heaven, of Jesus was God among us, and of the Spirit was God in us, was to confess that the Father is God, that the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God, and that together they are God.

And in the past, I've tried to help us understand the concept of the Trinity by using illustrations like water as ice, liquid water, and steam, and an apple as skin, flesh, and core....

So in the past, on Trinity Sunday, I've looked at the doctrine of the Trinity in detail. This year, though, I just want to try to enable us to better appreciate God: to better understand what He is like, how much He loves you and me, and the lengths to which He has gone to rescue us. To do this, I want to tell you a fairy story.... It's a fairy story like that of Cinderella and Snow White, so bear with me please as I tell it.... I'll think that you'll gradually work out why I'm telling it....

Please take note that the hall floor will be sanded and sealed on Monday 15th and Tuesday 16th June. The doors to the hall will be sealed to help contain the dust and odours. There will be no access to the hall and kitchen on Monday 15th—Wednesday 17th June.

Every 6 months we produce a roster for the volunteers who fulfil various roles that contribute to our Sunday worship services. It is time for us to compile the roster for July—December.

If you would like to join this great way of helping—do contact Wayne, or Angeline soon and they will pass you on to the coordinators of that area.

Note: Rosters are due on 17th June

You can bring new life in South Sudan

For just $18, you can support a refugee like Ayen to start a fresh new life.

If you could sit in Ayen's restaurant in South Sudan ...

... she'd serve you chappati, zambuzza and mundazzi

... and tell you how you changed her life.

... your kindness can still change someone's life forever.

The limited offer 9:1 Grant means for just $18, you can support a refugee to start a fresh new life.

When Ayen was just 14, poverty forced her parents to take her out of school. She had to leave home and go out into the bush to look after the family's few remaining cattle.

Ayen says missing out on school meant that when she had her own children, she didn't know the value of education.

When war came, Ayen and her children had to flee.

"We would run away to hide and then come back. It was frightening for the children, especially to see people being killed."

Yet that was just the beginning for Ayen.

For just $18 per person, the 9:1 Grant means you help:

- provide school for children
- supply water for the Health Centre
- train skills the community needs
- build peace and friendship.

What's more your $18 per person also produces flow-on benefits for another 20 people!

Visit the ALWS website for more information and how YOU can help others like Ayen in South Sudan.
