IN WORSHIP TODAY

Our Bible Readings for our 9am and 10.30am worship services are from the Good News Translation Bible.

For the 9am worship service, it is 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13 and the Gospel Reading is John 20:19-23.

The bible reading for the 10.30am worship service is John 20:19-23.

The theme and message for both our worship services today is "Follower of Jesus, start your engine" and is based on Acts 2:1-21.

On Pentecost, we celebrate the coming and triumph of Holy Spirit—over all of our differences, even the difference of our nationalities and our languages, of class, of race, of gender, over all these differences, Holy Spirit prevails—on Pentecost, over all of the hindrances to speech, Holy Spirit prevails. You see this so dramatically in Acts chapter 2—there they were, gathered, so many different, divisive languages, and nationalities, and at Holy Spirit's descent, those differences were overcome—Holy Spirit prevailed at Pentecost—and He prevailed against every human spirit—and continues to do so today.

Yes, there is a human spirit—many speak of the human spirit as that power within humanity—where the human spirit is resolute. So many people believe that the human spirit will prevail in all circumstances in life—but that's not the truth—the same human spirit which, in times of difficulty, is able to take a deep breath, to clench its fist and move forward is also the spirit which clenches its fist in disobedience and rebellion against God—how ironic that the human spirit can be both the source of some great achievements, and also that which brings grief.

If we are honest, we will find that Holy Spirit and our human spirit have at times been at odds, and at times they have danced together, encouraged one another, and again at times they have been in combat with one another—yet always, thank God, Holy Spirit will prevail—if we let him.

The promise of Pentecost is that every person of faith will be ignited by the person of Holy Spirit for a deeper expression of belief and a more powerful expression for Christian living. What extraordinary power Holy Spirit has—we may be tempted to think that the wind, the flame and the tongues are where Holy Spirit is, but to think only like this is to miss the person of Holy Spirit who is in and with us every day—eager to start our engines of faith and trust to do what Jesus has called us to do.
